Baba Vanga: The fearsome prophecies of European visionary who predicts the Doomsday date.

The fame of the mysterious Bulgarian woman grew to such a level that came to advise the leader of her country and be part of a paranormal intelligence center.

Tuesday December 16, 2014

She died in 1996. At 90 years old, she was one of the great visionaries of the twentieth century. She once predicted the death of Stalin and was arrested; however, she hit [?] since a year after the Soviet leader died. She is Baba Vanga, and this is her story, along with its fearful predictions for humanity.

When her brother, Vasil, went to a party, Vanga cried and begged him not to go. He did not believe her and was later found dead. There were signs of torture, and he had been shot.

She predicted the First World War. Thereafter, the fame of the mysterious Bulgarian woman grew to such a level that she came to advise the leader of her country and be part of a paranormal intelligence center. She also predicted the attack on the twin towers and the sinking of the Russian nuclear submarine Kursk.
